This research guide contains the full list of books which are currently available through the Historical Society in our Interim Reading Room. These books can also be browsed using our online catalog (<http://dchistory.pastperfectonline.com/>). For a complete list of books in our collection (but currently inaccessible due to our temporary location), please use this guide.

The “General Topics” portion of the guide is arranged using the subject headings from the Library of Congress cataloging system. Some subject headings may be unfamiliar or seemingly unrelated to the titles, but this is due to the nuances of classification and is not an error.

For example, John DeFerrari’s book, Historic restaurants of Washington, D.C.: capital eats (TX907.3 .W3 D43 2013), is in the “Technology” section. Library of Congress has cataloged the book as being in the “Home Economics” subsection of “Technology” which better explains the relationship between the section and the book subject. The subsections were omitted from this guide for brevity, but a listing of the subsections can be found here (<https://www.loc.gov/catdir/cpsol/lcco/>).
