

Permission for Personal Camera Use

IMAGES MADE BY PERSONAL CAMERAS SHALL ONLY BE USED FOR PRIVATE STUDY

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of the specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

GUIDELINES

- Small personal cameras are allowed in the reading room. Large tripods, lights, and flash photography are prohibited.
- The DC History Center reserves the right to deny permission to photograph materials if the reproduction is likely to damage materials, the materials are restricted, or if the use of a camera is likely to disrupt other researchers.
- Materials shall only be photographed on the tables provided, not on the floor or any other surfaces. Patrons shall not stand on furniture. All recording equipment must be kept on silent mode.

This form does not imply clearance of any copyright restrictions. It is the responsibility of the party using reproductions to ascertain and clear copyright restrictions on materials provided collection.

Digital reproductions for publication must be produced by the DC History Center. Requests for permission and reproductions must be made via the Request for Digital Reproductions and Permission to Publish form.

The user agrees not to reproduce, publish or exhibit any of the images obtained via personal camera use. The user has read and will comply with the copyright restriction warning and DCHC use policy above:
